Public Hearing Opened At 5:30 p.m.

Andy Sweeney asked if there was anyone there to speak for the Conditional Expansion. Jennifer Goodlove approached the Board. She asked if they had any questions. There were none.

Andy Sweeney then asked if there were any issues that need addressed. Jennifer Goodlove explained that she did not agree with any and conditions outlined on Pat Parsleys memo and that she would not change anything that she has been doing and would not comply. She added that she was taking advantage of the fact Peck's was gone and trying to enhance her business. She stated she would not scale down anything, and she has already done enough.
